Retarded Children Meeting April 24

Parents and others interested in the education of mentally retarded children in Carroll County are urged to attend a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 24, in the home ec room at Carrollton High School.

There will be a speaker for the meeting, which will be open to the public.

Plans for the session were made at a meeting of officers and the executive board of the newly-organized Carroll County Council for Retarded Children Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Price, vice president.

Various problems confronting the starting of a class for retarded children were also discussed at Monday's session, which was in charge of Mrs. Franklin Fuss, council president.

Others present were Mrs. Robert McClester, secretary; Mrs. Harold Wynn, treasurer, and board members, Mrs. Oscar Long and Edward L. Cavitt.
